SCHOOL REPORT

Your Superintendent respectfully submits the following report :

On investigation, I found as good a course of study as the best educators could devise was legally adopted as ours, viz.: the course as laid out by W W Stetson. I also learned that the above fact was not generally known. I proceeded at once to make it known and put the printed directions for the course of study in the hands of all teachers, officially notifying them that the course must be carefully followed and thorough work done.

Emphasis was placed on the fact that, not the amount gone over, but the amount of practical knowledge would be the test of good work done ; so all pupils were required to review work previously done. The wisdom of this requirement was questioned by many, but the excellent work done in all of the schools has proved the utility of it.

The plan of ranking the school on neatness, punctuality, deportment and endeavor, together with a careful enforcement of the truant law, has helped greatly in making the school room the neat, pleasant place it ought to be, as well as to give the largest possible average attendance which has been much larger than the preceding year.

A great deal of hard, earnest work has been done in all of the schools with the most gratifying results. As a rule parents, teachers and pupils have worked harmoniously together.

No. 4, during the last of the spring term had a trial of insubordination that made the last three weeks of little value, but a change of teachers resulted in success and good progress for the rest of the year. No change of teachers has been necessary in any other school.

Miss Wilson in No. 1, did careful, thorough work for two terms, and her successor, Mrs. E. W. Graham, is doing equally as well.

Mrs. Gerow is a teacher of energy and experience and has had her usual success.

Miss Colley in No. 3, in practical, thorough work has no superior in our schools, and her assistant deserves great praise for her careful, faithful work.

No. 4 has made excellent progress with Malcolm Winslow as teacher. He is a promising young teacher.

No. 5 has not been as satisfactory as one could wish partly because of the irregular attendance, standing in that respect the lowest of any in town. However, much good work was done. Especially worthy of mention was the perfect discipline maintained throughout the year.

No. 6 is a restless, uneasy school, not noted for hard work done, but the teachers have worked hard and faithfully and good progress has been made notwithstanding the low rank in deportment.

No. 7, though too large for one teacher to do the best possible work, has had a year that has given perfect satisfaction. Teacher and pupils have worked together in perfect harmony, to get the most possible out of each day. The amount and character of the work done are equal to any in town.

No. 8 has been fortunate in having a teacher whose thorough scholarship and ability are unquestioned, but unfortunate in having some parents who do not see the importance of an education and so have kept their scholars out or sent them so irregularly as to make good progress impossible.

No. 9 has enjoyed the services of one of the best teachers, and the large average attendance (the largest of any with one exception, No. 12) has made it possible for her to do a work very gratifying in its results.

No. 10 had the name of being hard but Miss Morrison was just the one for that school, so harmony and good progress has been the result.

Miss Huston has completed her third year in No. 12 with gratifying success. This school has maintained the highest average of any school in town and stands with two others, Nos. 7 and 9, as the only schools where no truants have been reported.

The influence of the truant law has been applied in eighteen different instances. Looking after all these truants has taken much time and care but parents have generally been willing to comply with the law when they knew it was to be impartially enforced. The enforcement of this law is a step in the right direction and should be supported by every good citizen.

Unused books have been taken from several schools and used as they were needed in others, so the fewest possible number have been bought making it possible to use much of the appropriation in putting in the needed and highly prized Frye's G. S. Geographies to take the place of the old Natural.

A good practical beginners' grammar is much needed to displace the Tarbell's Language books now in use.

A change in writing books is demanded as the tendency is to go back to the natural slant in writing. This change can be made without cost to the town.

The record of the year is hard, painstaking work on the part of the teachers and pupils and not one failure.

The schools have been visited from one to four times each term and there is need of still more of the Superintendent's time in the schoolroom. In the examination of classes in the larger schools, at least two days each term should be given. Of course it would cost the town a little more but it would pay well in the end.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

For several schools, viz., Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 9 and 10, the same teachers should be secured for the coming year if possible.

I feel sure that more male teachers are needed in town. Nos. 4, 6 and 7 ought to be thus supplied.

The town should vote to continue school No. 8 which now stands suspended because of falling below the average of eight scholars.

The town should also vote to change the writing books to the Natural Slant, as these are fast coming into use.

That some of the pupils nearest to No. 8 be sent there instead of to No. 7. Such a course would result in mutual good to both schools.

Any grievance in regard to any school or teacher should be reported directly to the Superintendent at the time of dissatisfaction.

All pupils having satisfactorily completed the course of study should graduate by proper exercises and diplomas furnished by the town.

REPAIRS.

It was necessary to use the most of the appropriation on No. 10, to make the house comfortable for fall and winter. Minor repairs have been made on other houses as needed.
